WHY ARE YOU HERE TODAY?

CARIT HISTORY

- 1984 Career Information Teams established
- 1993 CNO directs Pre-Separation counseling (OPNAVINST 1900.1)
- 2004 Re-aligned under Navy Recruiting Command

MISSION STATEMENT

Provide pre-separation transition guidance and counseling to all eligible (within 180 days of separation) officer and enlisted personnel (OPNAVINST 1900.1D).

We have a legal liability and moral obligation to help our Sailors with their transition. No other Navy or civilian organization is responsible for or capable of touching every separating sailor in such an organized and systematic way.

No other organization can maintain a broad base of connectivity to the fleet or be used to gather exit survey information.

We are different from the Transition Assistance Program (TAP). TAP prepares Sailors for a civilian career, CARIT prepares Sailors for separation and affiliation in the Navy Reserve.

MISSION and GOAL

- Primary:
  - Provide Pre-Separation information to transitioning Officer and Enlisted personnel.
  - Conduct training on Navy Reserve benefits and opportunities.
  - Provide quality leads to Navy Recruiting.

- Secondary
  - Assist with Command GMTs, instruct at CCC schoolhouse and monthly base wide CCC meetings, and facilitate CARIT return & reunion briefs onboard aircraft carriers and other ships.

- OUR GOAL:
  - Retain 100% of eligible Sailors by showing the benefits and opportunities of Reserve Component career opportunities.
